

About The Workshops

Due to popular demand, three free digital photography workshops are once again being offered at no charge to Seniors 65+ to encourage use and appreciation of the Kawartha Trans Canada Trail. Meet with fellow photographers to learn valuable tips to improve skills from local professional photographers, using cell phone, iPad or digital camera.

Workshop Agenda

Welcome and Introduction
Transfer to Trail
Photographer Instruction
Wrap-up, Snack Pack and Free Draw
Keepsake Group Photo
Photo Contest

Registration

All workshops are free to anyone aged 65+. Registration and more information can be found online at ktct.ca or call 705-879-2719.

Workshop participants meet at Fleming College Frost Campus at the Outdoor Education Log Cabin, unless otherwise advised.

Learn more about the Kawartha Trans Canada Trail Association and get involved.

Visit ktct.ca, to sign up for the KTCT e-newsletter, to find out how to become a FIVE. FIVE. FIVE. sponsor or to donate in a variety of helpful ways.

Thank You
FIVE. FIVE. FIVE. Sponsors

Thank You Prize Sponsors

Down to Earth
Adventure Outfitters

Funding Provided By

New Horizons for Seniors
Program – Ontario

Digital Photography for Seniors

Free Workshops

Ruth Tait

Photographer and Artist

“Creativity in Your Photography”

Join Ruth on the Kawartha Trans Canada Trail for ways to spark new creativity into your approach to image taking. Learn about composition and design elements that may improve your photography & help you develop the art of seeing.

Tuesday June 26, 2018

3:00 pm – 5:00 pm

(Rain Date on Thursday June 28)

Meet at the Log Cabin
at Fleming College, Lindsay.
Short walk to the trail.

Fred Thornhill

Photo Journalist

“Bring Light to Your Photography”

Join Fred at the Omeme Bridge, in Omeme. At this picturesque spot on the Trail, learn how to achieve better images and how light affect the outcome of your photos.

Tuesday August 21, 2018

9:00 am – 11:30 am

(Rain Date on Thursday August 23)

Meet at the bridge, just 250 m from KTCT trail access on Sturgeon Street North at the main intersection in Omeme. Parking available on west side of Sturgeon Street North or at Lady Eaton Elementary School parking lot – short walk to the trailhead.

Mark Ridout

Portrait Photographer

“Make Your Photography Meaningful”

Mark will share over three decades of experience using both available and artificial light. Connect with Mark for an interactive session, to learn new skills and gain confidence in creating meaningful moments through photography.

Tuesday October 2, 2018

9:30 am – 11:30 am

(Rain date on Thursday October 4)

Meet at the Log Cabin
at Fleming College, Lindsay.
Short walk to the trail.

