COMING SPRING 2023

Chair's Message

Seasons Greetings Kawartha Trans Canada Trail Supporters!

It is nearing the end of another year. Time to reflect on what we've done and what is coming up.

Highlights of 2022

- Partnered with Fleming College and Adelaide Place Retirement Home to plant 450 wildflowers along the trail.
- Developed the KTCT Trail Passport App, which aims to promote trail use and visits to participating businesses along the trail route. Users will have a chance to unlock locations to receive discounts and become eligible for prizes. Local businesses can submit a form through the website (<https://ktct.ca/passport-form/>).
- Cleaned up a significant number of downed trees along trail following every wind/rainstorm.
- Added to the Active Seniors section on our website (<https://ktct.ca/active-seniors/>).
- Our trail counter has indicated over 40,000 users and recent trail usage data shows a significant number of non-local trail users.

Plans for 2023

- Collaborate with the City of Kawartha Lakes to help manage parking and usage issues in the Orange Corners area as Doube's Trestle Bridge is becoming a major tourist destination, especially in the fall.
- Improve trail tread.
- Promote Trail Passport App.
- Hire two summer students.
- Increase maintenance at trail road intersections.

A huge thank you to all of our donors, managing partners, board directors and volunteers for the wonderful work they do in keeping the entire trail system safe and attractive for locals and visitors to use all year long.

The maintenance of our wonderful trail depends on grants and donations—so please consider supporting us (<https://ktct.ca/donate>) and don't forget to get outside, enjoy this trail, and have a safe holiday and winter.

John Hagarty

Orange Corners Parking

Parking along the road at Orange Corners to access Doube's Trestle Bridge and the trail is a problem, especially during weekends and holiday long weekends.

Our trail counter data indicates that the best time to visit the bridge is in the morning. Afternoons are very busy.

Biking for Pollinators

Thanks to the cyclists who are “Biking for Pollinators,” 400 seed pucks—containing wildflower seeds from cherry yarrow, purple and yellow cone flower, anise hyssop, helenium, blanket flower, and black-eyed susans—were scattered along the KTCT between Lindsay and Omemee.

In Memory of Dorothy DeNure

Dorothy DeNure was an avid cyclist who loved the outdoors. She was also one of the KTCTA’s Trail Champions, donating funds to help maintain and enhance the trail.

Her generosity led to the creation of our Donor Wall, which was named after her late husband, Fred.

Care for the Trail

Over the years, KTCTA volunteers have not only maintained the trail but also enhanced the green corridor surrounding it. The following activities have greatly benefitted all trail users—both people and wildlife.

- Planted trees, shrubs & over 450 wildflowers.
- Dispersed 400 wildflower seed pucks.
- Established a community pollinator garden alongside the trail in Reaboro.
- Installed 20 birdhouses & 6 bee hotels.
- Participated in annual Earth Day clean ups.
- Produced & posted online an invasive plant manual.
- Created trail lesson plans for local schools to use on the trail.

And our goal for 2023 is to plant 100 trees!

Dedicated Volunteers

As a non-profit organization, the KTCTA relies on individuals and corporations, who are generous with their monetary support, and dedicated volunteers, who are generous with their time and skills.

We couldn't do what we do without community involvement. Sincere thanks go to the following volunteer award recipients, and everyone who supports this wonderful trail of ours!

- Phil Ribble 2021
- Karen Rosborough 2020
- Fleming College, Frost Campus 2019
- Art Thompson 2018
- Al MacPherson 2017
- Ben Van den Broek 2016
- Ted Abbot 2015
- Carol and Ken Lunney 2014
- Steve Callaghan 2012
- Jack Murphy 2011
- Anne Powell 2010
- Dan Plancke 2010
- Jim Paterson 2009
- Bill Elliot 2009

KTCTA needs a volunteer(s) who can be in charge of the installation and repair of our signs.

Please email us at info@tctrail.ca if you are interested in this volunteer position.

Ontario By Bike

On July 23rd and 24th, a group of 35 riders with Ontario By Bike set off from Uxbridge and travelled along the trail to Peterborough, with an overnight stay in Lindsay. Ontario By Bike organizes group rides across the province for every level of rider. For more information, visit www.ontariobybike.ca.
